

Sotto voce

May 19, 2014

Full-time faculty will meet today at 11:30am in room 106 for the in-service luncheon.

Mark Colby (jazz studies) appeared as guest artist at West Aurora High School and John Hersey High School at their year-end concerts.

Dana Hall (jazz studies and ethnomusicology) performed last week with the Terrell Stafford Quintet at the Village Vanguard in New York City. After their week-long engagement, they entered the recording studio to track material for their upcoming CD on MaxJazz Records.

Ilya Kaler (violin) was a member of the jury of the Fifth Henri Marteau International Violin Competition in Lichtenberg/Hof, Germany earlier this month. Professor Kaler and Tempest Trio debuted in New York last Sunday at Town Hall (People's Symphony Festival series).

Michael Sylvester (voice) was recently named Master Teacher and Artist-in-Residence by Opera San Miguel for their annual Concurso San Miguel, the largest voice competition for Mexican Opera Singers and the only privately-funded competition for voice in Mexico. He is thrilled to be a permanent part of this event, where he was a teacher and jurist last March.
