UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

2024-25
Concert
Season

Dear Friends,

The DePaul University School of Music welcomes you to experience the joy of music in the spectacular Holtschneider Performance Center and Jarvis Opera Hall. This annual calendar is full of events featuring classical, jazz, and contemporary music, with something for everyone. Marvel at the dedication and passion of our students, draw inspiration from our extraordinary faculty, and be transformed by our brilliant guest artists.

We are featuring two very special guests this season: the astounding pianist Sara Davis Buechner in October and the multiple-Grammy-winning Pacifica Quartet in February. In addition to the return of Allen Tinkham and Daniel Boico leading the DePaul Symphony Orchestra, we are thrilled to add Lidiya Yankovskaya and Francesco Milioto to our roster of guest DPSO conductors. We have increased our annual opera productions from two to three and expanded our esteemed Faculty Artist Series from seven to ten.

As I enter my second year as Dean with a new strategic plan in hand, I am certain that we are a school on the move and I invite you to share in our excitement and growth. Our goal is to expand access to beauty, to wonder, and to excellence. We will be a cultural destination not only for our immediate community but for all of Chicagoland, and we look forward to seeing you in our halls.

Cheers!

John Milbauer, MPA | DMA

HPC Presents Series

We are delighted to present two remarkable events showcasing some of today's most acclaimed performing artists.

Sara Davis Buechner, piano

Tuesday | October 22 | 8 PM
Gannon Concert Hall

Sara Davis Buechner is one of the leading concert pianists of our time, a musician of “intelligence, integrity and all-encompassing technical prowess” (New York Times). She has been soloist with many of the world's prominent orchestras, and given recitals at Carnegie Hall, the Kennedy Center, and the Hollywood Bowl. She was a Bronze Medalist of the 1986 Tchaikovsky Piano Competition in Moscow. Ms. Buechner will present a solo recital with works from Mozart, Dvořák, MacDowell, Friml and Gershwin.

SARA DAVIS BUECHNER

Pacifica Quartet

Thursday | February 6 | 8 PM
Gannon Concert Hall

With a career spanning nearly three decades, the multiple Grammy Award-winning Pacifica Quartet has achieved international recognition as one of the finest chamber ensembles performing today. The Quartet is known for its virtuosity, exuberant performance style, and often-daring repertory choices. With its powerful energy and captivating, cohesive sound, the Pacifica has established itself as the embodiment of the senior American quartet sound. The Pacifica Quartet presents a program featuring Dvořák's “American” String Quartet along with works from Mendelssohn and Ives.

Community Music Division

The DePaul Community Music Division provides high-quality music instruction to students of all ages, abilities, backgrounds, and educational goals. Opportunity is available for serious musical study and growth in a nurturing and inclusive environment. Performances are presented throughout the year by students of varying ages and skill levels.

Piano New Music Fest

Sunday | October 20 | 3 PM

Brennan Recital Hall

Piano New Music Fest is a discovery and exploration of music from the 20th and 21st centuries and aims to acquaint our students with music written after 1960. Original compositions are also welcome.

DePaul Community Chorus

Sunday | November 17 | 3 PM

Sunday | March 23 | 3 PM

Gannon Concert Hall

Founded in 1989, the choral group is comprised of singers from all walks of life and varying levels of musical experience. Weekly rehearsals are held throughout the year at the Holtschneider Performance Center. The wide range of repertoire performed includes choral literature of the great composers from the sixteenth century to the present, as well as folk songs, spirituals, and music from the stage and screen.

New Horizons

Sunday | December 15 | 7 PM

Sunday | March 23 | 7 PM

Gannon Concert Hall

The New Horizons ensemble concept was founded at the Eastman School of Music in 1991 and has since been adopted by more than 90 organizations throughout the United States. New Horizons is an offering for adult students with no age requirement, with members ranging in age from twenty to ninety years old.
