Dear Music Minors,

We hope this message finds you in good health. The College Office team – Associate Dean, Kate Brucher, Assistant Director of Academic Advising, Amy Weatherford, and Assistant Director of Academic Services, Sarah Kaufman – deeply appreciate your patience as we have worked with university administration, department chairs, and faculty to offer all of our School of Music degree programs remotely, including the minors in Music Business, Music Recording, and Music Studies.

If you have questions about specific Spring Quarter courses, we encourage you to reach out directly to faculty instructors. You should also expect to hear from the instructor by the first week of the quarter, if not sooner, about expectations for each class. We expect there will be some bumps along the road as students and faculty alike are new to some of the applications for remote teaching; however, faculty are committed to teaching and learning alongside our students in the spirit of St. Vincent DePaul.

Once again, if you have any questions about Spring Quarter advising and registration, please reach out to us.

Sincerely,
Kate Brucher

Course Offerings for Music Minors

COVID-19 and the decision to offer Spring Quarter courses remotely has impacted School of Music scheduling. Below is an expanded list of course options for Spring 2020 that are open to music minors. Courses that have recently been added are indicated.

If you have already enrolled in a Jazz Combo, Classical Large Ensemble, or Classical Chamber Music, please drop those classes as soon as possible, as they will not run in the spring.

The College Office is operating remotely, but we are still here to answer your questions. For any questions, large or small, regarding your spring courses, please contact Amy at a.weatherford@depaul.edu. You can share your questions over email, or request a zoom or phone advising appointment. If you have an issue with registration, please contact Sarah Kaufman at sarah.kaufman@depaul.edu. General inquiries can be directed to musiccollegeoffice@depaul.edu.

As a reminder, here are the upcoming important dates you need to keep in mind:

Monday, April 13: Deadline to drop classes from your Spring 2020 schedule with no grade penalty and 100% tuition refund (11:59 PM)
